October at Hustonsville was inaugurated with first white frost of the season. It remains for some savant to decide which stage is light of the moon before many can determine probable damage to sweet potatoes.

Two of Lincoln's big sales conducted 2nd inst, and only the accident that the state's spellbinders, Ike Dunn and Tom English were rival attractions assured a division of crowd and spirited scrambles for all bargains at both.

The political quiet of this end is funeral. Not a bellow of the Bull Moose, nor a trumpet of G. O. P. elephant has been heard, and occasional bray of democratic donkey savors more of a satisfied soliloquy or babble of a pleasant dream than of hoarse defiance.

A herd of 200 cattle from Cumberland and Adair counties was driven through here last week en route to Lexington. Two days later Robert Young, of Columbia, reached our southern suburb with a mixed herd of 200, which were easily sold to greedy buyers.

Last Monday evening Rev. Wilson, of Sulphur, Henry county entertained an audience at the Christian church with his brief career, as missionary along the Congo in Africa.

Mr. Wilson presented very feelingly the capabilities of the natives and their enthusiastic response to civilizing influences. He exhibited many curious illustrations of their barbaric fashions and customs, and implements and fabrics manifesting much skill and taste. Equatorial swamps and their unsanitary accompaniments and products rapidly wreck health of even comparatively robust specimens of our climate, and the missionary's sojourn is either short or fatal.

$70 AN ACRE REFUSED
By Boring Land Company For Big Tract of Mountain Land.

A meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Cumberland Valley Land Co., was held at their office in the First National Bank Wednesday afternoon. Considerable routine business was transacted after which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. S. Hoeker, President, J. W. Alcorn, Vice President, J. W. Hayden Secretary and Treasurer. The directors of this company which has valuable coal and timber holdings in Harlan and adjoining counties, are: J. A. Craft, of Louisville, James W. Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., J. W. Hayden, of Paris, J. S. Hoeker, and J. W. Alcorn, this city, H. Boyd and James Boring, London, Dr. J. M. Williams, Knoxville, and Horace M. Fox, of Virginia. All were present except the first named.

A year or so ago the Cumberland Valley Land Co., sold to the Boring Land & Mining Co., which has its headquarters at Rowland, some 3,500 acres of their holdings. This company has the same officers as the above and the following directors: J. A. Craft, J. B. Foster, J. W. Alcorn, James W. Fox, R. Boyd, J. W. Hayden, J. S. Hoeker, H. E. Fox, and J. M. Williams. At the meeting of this company, the same day an offer of $70 per acre for a good boundary of their land was discussed and was turned down by a vote of four to three. They held it at $100 per acre and believe they have a good chance to sell at that price. The lands owned by these two companies are very rich in coal and timber and are much sought after by miners and timber men.

Paint Lick Man Wins Automobile.

C. C. McClure, a prominent farmer and stockman of the Paint Lick section of Garrard county, and formerly of the East End of this county, won the automobile given away by Cummins & Wearen, the gent's furnisiers of this city. Mr. McClure held No. 7494 which drew the machine, and came in Thursday to claim his prize. He had about 70 tickets in all on the car, as he does most of his trading in Stanford. Instead of the car, however, he took a check for $500 which had been offered in lieu of it by the firm which gave it away. Several rather clever attempts were made to "work" the firm with forged tickets containing the right number, but they detected them each time. Mr. McClure has been a life long subscriber and reader of the I. J.

GRADED SCHOOL WINS In Fight at McKinney and Taxes Must Be Paid Now.

McKinney, Ky., Oct. 2.—The court decided the question concerning the tax of the graded school here in favor of the graded school and those who refused to pay their taxes will have to do so now after a long wait. The school is progressing nicely and the trustees are planning to call an election to take a vote on the Bond Issue and if they are successful in putting that through and we know they will, the trustees then will lay plans for a two story brick building for the school. This is one of the best locations for a graded school anywhere and the people should push this to a finish.

William C. Long,

Statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., of the Interior Journal, published twice a week, at Stanford, Ky., required by the act of August 24, 1912. Name of Editor, managing editor, business manager, publisher, Shelton M. Saufley, Stanford, Ky. Owner Shelton M. Saufley; known bond holder, mortgagee, and other security holders, holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities: E. C. Walton, Stanford, Ky. Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 30th day of September, 1912, W. M. Bright, Notary Public. My commission expires January 9th 1916.

Montgomery county went dry Monday by a majority of 902. Mr. Sterling has had saloons for many years.

Edelen's Fine Record at State Fair.

The Farmer's Home Journal pays high compliment to the great show made by Allen Edelen's horses at the recent State Fair. It said: The Glenworth saddle horse farm, of Burgin, Ky., has established a record for winning ribbons at the Kentucky State Fair—16 out of 18 shows. Mr. Edelen, the proprietor, has been the heaviest ribbon winner here several different years, but has never before won such a percentage. Glenworth is the home of the Bohemian King, and his get which by the way are nearly all of the popular chestnut color. In the ring for finest and best saddle bred fully under one year old the get of Bohemian won first, second and third monies—first going to Bohemian Music, chestnut colored, out of Kentucky Belle, by Thornton's Star, second to Bohemian Art, chestnut colored, out of Lady Dare, by Chester Dare, and third to Glendalough, chestnut colored, out of Highland Maid, by Highland Denmark. It is claimed that no other saddle stallion has ever sired three money winners in this ring at the State Fair. Notwithstanding no two of the dams of the winners were the same colors the premium foals were chestnuts because of Bohemian King's tendency to sire that color on account of his blood lines. Before coming to the State Fair Mr. Edelen's horses had shown at Danville, Harrodsburg, Perryville, Stanford, Lancaster, Lexington, Hardinsburg, Paris and other fairs and were in the money in every show except five, and in most of these cases there were no second moneys. A most wonderful record. Bohemian King was champion show saddle stallion as a three year old.

Mrs. Nancy A. Logan, E. Main Street, Stanford, Ky., says: "I scarcely know what to say to express by gratitude to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great good they have done me. My back had about given out and pained me severely at times. I was weak and lame and I knew that my kidneys were disordered as the secretions were unnatural. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply at Shugars & Tanner's Drug Store. This remedy entirely relieved me and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Bowen

The wedding bells have been ringing in Bowen.

Jim Daugherty and Miss Elizabeth Fox were married in Covington on Sept. 21. Mr. Daugherty and his bride are both of this place. A long and happy life are the wishes of their many friends.

Mr. Ollie Kauffman, of this place, and Miss Lorena Ferguson, of Indianapolis, Ind., were married Sept. 26, at Indianapolis and are with relatives here at the present.

We are thinking that the wedding bells will ring again soon and Bowen will lose another one of its popular young ladies. If you can't guess wait and see.

Mr. Chester Staton from Indianapolis, Ind., has been visiting his brother, Mr. Geo. Staton, of this place.

Mr. George Coffey and wife have returned after a few days' visit at Liberty, where she attended the fair.

School seems to be going on nicely with good attendance.

Miss Ruth Coffey is at home after a visit to relatives at Turnersville.

Mr. Robert Fox visited his sister, Mrs. Grubbs at Liberty last week.

Mrs. Edd Murphy and children, of King's Mountain, were the guests of Mrs. George Coffey Thursday and Friday.

Born, to the wife of Lindsay Carney on September 24, a sweet little girl baby, Jennie Lucile.

All seem to have enjoyed Friday afternoon exercises given by the school. The program was:

Song.—There's one thing I can do, recitations by Alma Coffey, Cereba White, Thomas Coffey and Bob Kauffman. Song by Elizabeth Bracke. Two Little Orphans. Ending by debate on Broom and Dish rag.

A nice crowd of our people spent a delightful evening Sunday with Misses Ruth and Alma Coffey. Those present were Jake Wolford, Miss Mary Russell, Mr. Pat Daugherty, Pauline Taylor, Mr. Jason Gibson, Miss Essie Daugherty, Mr. Robert Fox, Miss Maggie Fox, and Mr. Lindsay Buchanan.

Lillian, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Hughes, of Danville, died Saturday, September 28 and was buried here Sunday. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

Mrs. George Coffey spent Sunday with Mrs. T. R. Taylor.

We are having cold weather now and all who are not prepared for Jack Frost had better get busy for he will soon be on hand.

Used to Live in Lincoln

Rear Admiral Lucien Young, who died in New York City of a ruptured blood vessel Wednesday, was formerly a Lincoln county man and was well known by a number of Stanford people, including Mr. G. B. Cooper and Judge Bailey. He lived for a number of years in the West End on the farm now owned by Mr. J. K. Helm and during that time spent much of his time in Hustonville. He was considered a very brilliant man and was almost a perfect specimen of physical manhood. He was an intimate friend of Mr. Cooper, who regretted very much to hear of his sudden demise.

The man who borrowed my raincoat at the Stanford fair is requested to send it home. My name is written in ink in the back. R. S. Scudder, McKinney. 79-2t.

A Severe Sickness Leaves The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly

Coughs and Colds

You could not please us better than to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis. Thousands of families always keep it in the house. The approval of their physician and the experience of many years have given them great confidence in this standard cough medicine. Sold for seventy years.

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

As they went to about 1,200 pounds in weight, they proved a fortunate investment for Mr. Shelby at the present price of beef cattle.

Mr. James B. Parks, of Kingston, Madison county, sold last week to Simon Weil one hundred 1,600 pound cattle at $9 per hundred, to be delivered November 1. This is a record price for cattle in Madison county and possibly the highest ever paid for a bunch of cattle in the State, says the Richmond Climax.

Thomas M. Manning, who has been living near the Givens place on the Hubble pike, north of town, for several years, this week, purchased of Green Ferrill, his farm of 41 acres, lying about two and a half miles from Stanford on the Lancaster pike. Col. I. M. Dunn, the popular auctioneer, who was here Wednesday to cry the big J. H. Baughman sale, brought along and showed to some friends a hand of North Carolina tobacco which sold for $1 a pound on the breaks in that state last week. The weed is almost saffron yellow in color, the branching being done by steam drying in the barn. Jeffers, former sheriff of that county, S. M. Noel and J. C. McDonald. They purchased a trio of nice mules from Cashier W. M. Bright of the Lincoln County National Bank, giving him $250 for a nice pair of two-year old mare mules, and $125 for a three-year-old horse hybrid. They also got a mare mule from Frank Smith, one mile out on the Danville pike, which cost them $150, and gave S. G. Brown, of the Eubank section, $425 for an extra pair of mare mules. All of these went in the car of stock which they bought at the sale. Mr. Noel bought a nice Shetland gelding from Sam Embury, Jr., that cost $52.50 and Mr. Jeffers bought a walk gelding from George Shelby for $115.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No matter how healthy a human being may be it is safe to say that some months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary. The bloating, the dull feeling may start after the evening meal. If a laxative is not taken that night it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will awaken unrefreshed.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept in the house for just such emergency. It is sure to be needed, and when needed you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for babies and Monticello, Ill. Your name and address grownups is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Any one wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. R. Caldwell, 400 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
